senseless--obstinate, my lord,
Too ceremonious and traditional.

You break not sanctuary in seizing him.

The benefit thereof is always
granted

To those whose dealings have
deserved the place,

And those who have the wit to
claim the place:

This prince hath neither
claim'd it nor deserved it;

And therefore, in mine
opinion, cannot have it:

Then, taking him from thence
that is not there,

You break no privilege nor

ocl25-a3s1p45bl19 Act III, Scene I, Page 45 Cue: GLOUCESTER: ... He is all the mother's, from the top to toe.	BUCKINGHAM: Well, let them rest. Come hither, Catesby. Thou art sworn as deeply to effect what we intend As closely to conceal what we impart: What think'st thou? is it not an easy matter To make William Lord Hastings of our mind,

	For the installment of this noble duke In the seat royal of this famous isle?
ocl19-a3s1p45bl20 Act III, Scene I, Page 45 Cue: CATESBY: He for his father's sake so loves the prince, / That he will not be won to aught against him.	BUCKINGHAM: What think'st thou, then, of Stanley? what will he?
ocl8-a3s1p46bl21 Act III, Scene I, Page 46 Cue: CATESBY: He will do all in all as Hastings doth.	BUCKINGHAM: Well, then, no more but this: go, gentle Catesby, And, as it were far off sound thou Lord Hastings, How doth he stand affected to our purpose; And summon him to-morrow to the Tower,

	To sit about the coronation. If thou dost find him tractable to us, Encourage him, and show him all our reasons: If he be leaden, icy-cold, unwilling, Be thou so too; and so break off your talk, And give us notice of his inclination: For we to-morrow hold divided councils, Wherein thyself shalt highly be employ'd.

BUCKINGHAM: The mayor is here at hand: intend some fear; Be not you spoke with, but by mighty suit: And look you get a prayer-book in your hand, And stand betwixt two churchmen, good my lord; For on that ground I'll build a holy descant: And be not easily won to our request: Play the maid's part, still answer nay, and take it.

ocl28-a3s6p55bl31 Act III, Scene VI, Page 55 Cue: GLOUCESTER: ... No doubt well bring it to a happy issue.	BUCKINGHAM: Go, go, up to the leads; the lord mayor knocks. Welcome my lord; I dance attendance here; I think the duke will not be spoke withal.
ocl38-a3s6p55bl32 Act III, Scene VI, Page 55 Cue: CATESBY: ... To draw him from his holy exercise.	BUCKINGHAM: Return, good Catesby, to thy lord again; Tell him, myself, the mayor and citizens, In deep designs and matters of great moment, Are come to have some conference with his grace.

divines;
Happy were England, would
this gracious prince Take on himself the sovereignty thereof.

ocl9-a3s6p56bl35 Act III, Scene VI, Page 56 Cue: CATESBY: My lord, he fears you mean no good to him.	BUCKINGHAM: Sorry I am my noble cousin should Suspect me, that I mean no good to him: By heaven, I come in perfect love to him; And so once more return and tell his grace.
ocl0-a3s6p56bl36 Act III, Scene VI, Page 56 Cue: [Exit CATESBY]	BUCKINGHAM: When holy and devout religious men Are at their beads, 'tis hard to draw them thence, So sweet is zealous contemplation.

ocl36-a3s6p56bl38 Act III, Scene VI, Page 56 Cue: GLOUCESTER: ... But, leaving this, what is your grace's pleasure?	BUCKINGHAM: Even that, I hope, which pleaseth God above, And all good men of this ungovern'd isle.
ocl17-a3s6p57bl39 Act III, Scene VI, Page 57 Cue: GLOUCESTER: I do suspect I have done some offence / That seems disgraceful in the city's eyes.	BUCKINGHAM: You have, my lord: would it might please your grace, At our entreaties, to amend that fault!

Act III, Scene VI, Page

Cue: GLOUCESTER:
Else wherefore breathe
I in a Christian land?

BUCKINGHAM: Then know, it
is your fault that you resign
The supreme seat, the throne
majestical,
The scepter'd office of your
ancestors,
The lineal glory of your royal
house,
To the corruption of a
blemished stock:
This noble isle doth want her
proper limbs;
Her face defaced with scars of
infamy,
Her royal stock graft with
ignoble plants,
And almost shoulder'd in the
swallowing gulf
Of blind forgetfulness and
dark oblivion.
Which to recure, we heartily solicit
Your gracious self to take on you the charge And kingly government of this your land, Not as protector, steward, substitute, Or lowly factor for another's gain; But as successively from blood to blood, Your right of birth, your empery, your own.

ocl53-a3s6p57bl41 Act III, Scene VI, Page 57-58 Cue: GLOUCESTER: ... And make, no doubt, us happy by his reign.	BUCKINGHAM: My lord, this argues conscience in your grace; You say that Edward is your brother's son: So say we too, but not by Edward's wife; For first he was contract to Lady Lucy And afterward by substitute betroth'd

To Bona, sister to the King of France.

These both put by a poor
petitioner,

A care-crazed mother of a
many children,

A beauty-waning and
distressed widow,

Made prize and purchase of
his lustful eye,

Seduced the pitch and height
of all his thoughts

To base declension and loathed bigamy.

By her, in his unlawful bed, he got

This Edward, whom our manners term the prince.

More bitterly could I
expostulate,

Save that, for reverence to
some alive,

I give a sparing limit to my tongue. Then, good my lord, take to your royal self This proffer'd benefit of dignity; If non to bless us and the land withal, Yet to draw forth your noble ancestry From the corruption of abusing times, Unto a lineal true-derived course.

ocl35-a3s6p58bl42 Act III, Scene VI, Page 58 Cue: GLOUCESTER: ... I must have patience to endure the load.	BUCKINGHAM: Then I salute you with this kingly title: Long live Richard, England's royal king!

Act IV, Scene II, Page 67 Cue: KING RICHARD III: Well, let it strike.	strike?
ocl19-a4s2p67bl60 Act IV, Scene II, Page 67 Cue: KING RICHARD III: ... I am not in the giving vein to-day.	BUCKINGHAM: Is it even so? rewards he my true service With such deep contempt? made I him king for this? O, let me think on Hastings, and be gone To Brecknock, while my fearful head is on!
ocl1340-a5s1p83bl61 Act V, Scene I, Page 83 Cue: [Enter RATCLIFFE, and BUCKINGHAM, with halberds, led to	BUCKINGHAM: Will not King Richard let me speak with him?

execution]
ocl7-a5s1p83bl62 Act V, Scene I, Page 83 Cue: RATCLIFFE: No, my good lord; therefore be patient.	BUCKINGHAM: Hastings, and Edward's children, Rivers, Holy King Henry, and thy fair son Edward, And all that have miscarried By underhand corrupted foul injustice, If that your moody discontented souls Do through the clouds behold this present hour, Even for revenge mock my destruction! This is All-Souls' day, fellow, is it not?
ocl4-a5s1p83bl63 Act V, Scene I, Page 83 Cue: RATCLIFFE: It is,	BUCKINGHAM: Why, then All-Souls' day is my body's doomsday. This is the day that, in King

my lord.

Edward's time,
I wish't might fall on me, when I was found False to his children or his wife's allies;
This is the day wherein I
wish'd to fall
By the false faith of him I
trusted most;
This, this All-Souls' day to my
fearful soul
Is the determined respite of
my wrongs:
That high All-Seer that I
dallied with Hath turn'd my feigned prayer
on my head
And given in earnest what I
begg'd in jest.
Now Margaret's curse is fallen
upon my head;
Come, sirs, convey me to the
block of shame;

	Wrong hath but wrong, and blame the due of blame.
ocl390-a5s3p87bl64 Act V, Scene III, Page 87 Cue: Ghost of LADY ANNE: ... To-morrow in the battle think on me, / And fall thy edgeless sword: despair, and die!	GHOST OF BUCKINGHAM: The last was I that helped thee to the crown; The last was I that felt thy tyranny: O, in the battle think on Buckingham, And die in terror of thy guiltiness! Dream on, dream on, of bloody deeds and death: Fainting, despair; despairing, yield thy breath!
